4 Terms, Aims and Objectives

4.1 The club/society shall hold the following as its aims and objectives.

4.2 The club/society shall strive to fulfil these aims and objectives in the course of the academic year as its commitment to its membership.

4.3 The core activities of the club/society shall be:

4.3.1 3D Software Courses – Committee members as well as society members with significant experience in a 3D software will do weekly classes teaching the basics of said software.

4.3.2 3D Socials and Critique – Every 2-3 weeks we would organise socials where members can showcase their creations, discuss and have fun while enjoying snacks.

4.4 In addition, the club/society shall also strive to organise other activities for its members where possible:

4.4.1 3D Topical courses – short 1-2 session courses on various niche aspects of 3D such as photo scanning, shading and character modelling. This would also potentially include brief introductions to auxiliary software and helpful tools used in the 3D industry.

4.4.2 Talks by professional 3D artists, simulation scientists, VFX engineers and industry experts.

4.4.3 3D Printing workshops – partnering with the Institute of Making to help students design and print their 3D creations.

4.4.4 Collaborations with other societies:

4.4.4.1 Photo scanning and texture making workshops with the Photography Society.

4.4.4.2 Recreation challenge with the Art, Photo and Writer's society – this would involve setting up a theme and each society would bring their own contribution. The final result would then be joined into a larger project.

4.5 This constitution shall be binding on the club/society officers, and shall only be altered by consent of two-thirds majority of the full members present at a club/society general meeting. The Activities Zone shall approve any such alterations.

4.6 This constitution has been approved and accepted as the Constitution for the Students' Union UCL 3D Modelling Society. By signing this document the president and treasurer have declared that they have read and abide by the Students' Union UCL Club and Society Regulations.
